United States To Start Deliveries Under Arms Aid Program

Four B-29s To Fly To Britain On Monday

U.S. To Launch Deliveries Of Military Aid

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(GNS)—The Defense department announced today that four B-29 bombers will fly to Britain Monday at the first actual military equipment to be delivered under the arms aid program.

The B-29's, first of the 70 such bombers which reportedly will be turned over to the British, will take off from Andrews Field, near Washington, for an undisclosed base in England.

A French carrier is now loading naval planes at Norfolk, Va., but will not reach France with its load of military assistance until after the B-29's are delivered.

Ceremony Arranged

A ceremony in which representatives of the British Embassy and the British and American armed forces will take part has been arranged to precede the take-off from Andrews Field.

The planes will be delivered to British bases by American crews. The crews will remain in Britain for some time to train Royal Air Force personnel in the handling of B-29's.

More than 3,000 of these bombers, which dropped the first atomic bombs, were built during the war. About 600 of them are now in active service in the U. S. Air Force.

Acheson To Make Cold War Peace Speeches In West

By JOHN A. REICHMANN
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Secretary of State Acheson is en route to the west coast today in a personal campaign to enlist the American people in a drive for total peace to end the cold war.

The secretary left Washington late yesterday aboard the late President Roosevelt's plane, the Sacred Cow, on his mission to get all the people behind a concerted drive to defeat by diplomacy Russia's plans for world domination.

In two major foreign policy speeches on the west coast, Acheson is expected to inform the American people that the cold war may last a long time, but should cause them no fear.

One of the speeches will deal with the situation in the Far East, where Chinese Communist threats to adjoining Indo-China are a major concern of the U. S.

The talk will be before the Commonwealth Club of California on Wednesday.

The second will deal with U. S.-Soviet relations and will lay the basis of present day policy in the cold war. It will be delivered at the University of California in connection with the conference on international cooperation for world economic development.

In addition to the two scheduled speeches, Acheson will address the San Francisco Press Club and the world affairs council in off-the-record talks.

Local Woman Fatally Hurt

Mrs. Kosciuszko Killed At Kent

Mrs. Alfonse Kosciuszko, 28, of Mahoning avenue, was killed this morning at 7:30 o'clock on Route 224 in Kent, O., while driving with her husband en route to Chanute Field, Ill., where he is stationed.

According to the meager information received at police headquarters and according to the family report, Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Leno Kosciuszko and her husband, First Lieut. Alfonse Kosciuszko, departed from New Castle this morning at 6:30 o'clock. At that time, according to her family, Lieut. Kosciuszko was driving. It was not learned, however, who was driving the car at the time the two had reached Kent, O.

The accident involved a trailer truck, but definite details of the accident have not yet been ascertained. Her husband was uninjured.

Lieut. and Mrs. Kosciuszko were visiting here with their parents and had concluded a seven-day leave.

Posses Find Missing Men

One Frozen To Death Other Near Death

TULELAKE, Cal., March 14.—(INS)—Posses that plowed through the snowy wilds of California's remote northeast corner have found two missing U. S. government engineers, one of them frozen to death and the other prostrated with shock and exposure.

The two men, both engineers for the Federal Reclamation Bureau, had been lost for three days. They were located yesterday in an abandoned sheepherder's cabin in the forested Modoc county hills southeast of Tulelake. The discovery was reported this morning.

Found dead from exposure and exhaustion was A. B. Ribbeck, 38, head of the Reclamation Bureau's engineering office at Sacramento, Calif. Lying beside him, frost-bitten and almost unconscious, was his companion, Rudy Simonson, 32, of Weed, Calif.

New York Plans For Rain Making Experiments Soon

NEW YORK, March 14.—(INS)—The New York Board of Estimate was called to a special meeting this afternoon to approve a $50,000 appropriation for extensive rain-making experiments over the watersheds of the world's largest city.

It will be the first time that science attempted to determine how much water could be loosened over a chosen area.

Mayor William O'Dwyer said that if the appropriation is rushed through the experiments will be started immediately.

He said the purpose will be to help fill New York's half-empty reservoirs before summer droughts and to pioneer practical rain-making "for the great benefit of the world."

Planning for the experiments envisons organization of a meteorological team equipped with planes, radar and cloud-seeding apparatus.

Mrs. Madsen Admits She Shot Husband

Woman On Trial In Frankfurt Court On Witness Stand

By TOM AGOSTON
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

FRANKFURT, March 14.—Brooklyn-born Yvette Madsen admitted at her murder trial today that she killed her air force officer husband last October, and is "sorry" she did.

The admission by the shapely 22-year-old American occupation housewife came on the fifth day of her trial. She stressed repeatedly that she had only the most vague recollections of the fatal shooting.

She was asked the direct question whether she was sorry she killed Lieut. Andrew Madsen in their Frankfurt apartment, and whispered in reply:

"Yes."

Didn't Mean To Shoot Him

The prosecutor demanded to know "why" she shot Madsen.

"I didn't mean to shoot him," came the young woman halting, almost inaudible reply.

Frequently Mrs. Madsen spoke so low the court clerk had to repeat her answers.

Later in her testimony, the attractive young defendant sobbed to the court:

"Andy is not dead to me. I loved him. I still love him."

Mrs. Madsen said she thought she must have been drunk the night of the shooting, when she left a party in anger and then awaited her husband's return home.

She related how she first sought sleeping pills and then hunted and found a gun belonging to Lt. Madsen. Telling how she recalled

Sen. McCarthy Gives Probers More Names

Continues Attack On List Of Alleged 'Pro-Communists'

By WILLIAM THEIS
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Sen. McCarthy (R) Wis., charged today that John Stewart Service, U. S. consul at Calcutta, is "not a sound security risk" and has been refused loyalty clearance by the Civil Service Commission within the past two weeks.

More Names Added

The GOP senator fired his blast at Service during rapid fire testimony in which he added the names of Dr. Harlow Shapley, astronomer and United Nations representative, and Gustavo Duran, former State department official, to his list of alleged "pro-communists".

McCarthy also charged that a man arrested in Washington for "sexual perversion" and allowed to resign from the State department now holds a $10,000 to $12,000-a-year post in the central intelligence agency.

McCarthy asked the Tydings sub-committee investigating charges of communist infiltration in the government to check immediately on whether Service was "not considered as a bad security risk by the loyalty appeal board of the Civil Service Commission in a post audit decision, handed down on March 3 of this year."

Investigated Five Times

McCarthy noted that Service had been investigated "five times" and declared:

"What possible reason could there have been for even a second investigation of his record? He was not an acceptable security risk under Secretary Mr. Acheson's 'yardstick of loyalty' the day he entered the government."

"He is not a sound security risk today."

In discussing Shapley, McCarthy referred particularly to the scientist's activities in connection with the March, 1949, "world peace conference" in New York.

He said the conference was "nothing more than a Soviet-communist meeting for the purpose of discrediting this nation's fight against communism in Europe and elsewhere."

President Of Westminster Tells Rotarians Of School

Federal Aid To Education Bill Is Killed

By DR. WILL W. ORR

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(INS)—The House Labor committee today killed federal aid to education legislation by a 13-to-12 vote.

By the action, the House group rejected a Senate-approved bill which would have provided 300 million dollars to aid the nation's schools.

Defeat of the measure resulted from a bitter dispute as to whether the government funds could be used in any way by Catholic and other non-public schools.

The Senate bill would have made it optional for the states to determine whether parochial and

Mailing Frank Of Congressman Is Identified

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(INS)—Matthew Cvetic, an undercover FBI agent, today identified Rep. Sadowski (D) Mich., as the Congressman whose mailing frank was used in Pittsburgh by the American Slav Congress, identified as a Communist front.

Cvetic, planted in the Communist party for seven years as a government informant, said the Michigan Congressman's free mailing frank was used by the Slav Congress to send out a speech by Sadowski to a mailing list of 5,000 persons on one occasion in 1949.

The incident was brought out in testimony by Cvetic before the House Un-American Activities committee yesterday.

At the committee hearing Rep. Walter (D) Pa., questioned Cvetic concerning news reports that a Congressional Frank was available to Communists in the Pittsburgh area. Cvetic corroborated the report and added:

"The person responsible for that was someone who met daily with Steve Nelson, western Pennsylvania Communist's party organizer, and carried out his instructions."

Cvetic told newsmen today that the arrangement for the franking privilege was made by George Wuchinich, a Slav Congress official whom he identified as "a known Communist party member."

Sadowski identified the speech for newsmen as one he inserted in the Congressional Record of Aug. 16, 1949, in support of a proposal of the Society of Friends (Quakers) to promote world trade.

The Congressman through his secretary informed newsmen that Wuchinich wrote him asking if he might obtain several thousand copies of the speech. Sadowski reported that he had between 2,000 and 3,000 copies printed for Wuchinich's use as a routine procedure.

MRS. MADSEN ADMITS SHE SHOT HUSBAND

his entry into their apartment, she then insisted in the first part of her testimony that she did not remember the gun going off.

Testimony Conflicts

In support of defense counsel assertions that she was unstable and incapable of assisting in her own defense, Mrs. Madsen also recited how on several occasions she tried to do away with herself.

When she first took the stand before the U. S. court trying her under German law, the dark-haired defendant was asked:

"Yvette, did you shoot your husband?"

Her reply was "I do not know." Prior to the trial Mrs. Madsen had admitted that she shot her husband when "he laughed at me."

The laughing reportedly took place at a party which Mrs. Madsen left after complaining to her husband that she had been "insulted" by another officer who talked about her "Brooklynese."

The 22-year-old mother of two small children burst into frequent crying and sobbing after taking the stand. Frequently her voice broke and her testimony was interrupted. Often she was asked to repeat her statements louder for a student passing up a $1,200 scholarship for a $200 scholarship at Westminster.

Whether one gets a bid to a sorority or fraternity may determine one's attitude for the four college years, or even perhaps for a lifetime. There are six sororities and three fraternities, making student-management difficult. Hence permission has been granted a local to form and seek national membership. The recommendation came from the inter-fraternity council.

PRESIDENT OF WESTMINSTER TELLS ROTARIANS OF SCHOOL

wider field is presented from which to choose new faculty personnel, and an opportunity is being given the faculty to work on advanced degrees and post doctoral studies. Over 20 per cent of Westminster's faculty have their Ph.D.'s, he stated.

It feels fortunate in securing the services of such a splendid educator as Dr. William Vander Lugt as academic dean.

County Well Represented

Last semester the college had 1,142 students enrolled and this semester 1,121 of whom 1,002 are regular students. Pennsylvania leads with 973 students, Ohio has 106, and the rest coming from other states. Lawrence county leads with 285 students, followed closely by Allegheny with 235. Mercer county comes next with 143 students.

There are 121 students on the honor roll, better than 10 per cent of the enrollments.

One of the school's greatest assets is the spirit of friendliness manifested on the campus, which recently was responsible for a student passing up a $1,200 scholarship for a $200 scholarship at Westminster.

Whether one gets a bid to a sorority or fraternity may determine one's attitude for the four college years, or even perhaps for a lifetime. There are six sororities and three fraternities, making student-management difficult. Hence permission has been granted a local to form and seek national membership. The recommendation came from the inter-fraternity council.

Mock Congress Planned

A second matter of worthy report is the mock congress, which is being sponsored by the department of political science, as an aid in preparing its young men and women for actual participation in future politics. This will take place on March 20-22 in the college gymnasium, he stated.

In the field of athletics Westminster has enjoyed a most successful basketball season, and the team is now at Kansas City where it is entered in the NAIB tournament. Additional seats have been purchased and will be available for football next fall to accommodate the large crowds which have been turning out for this sport.

Another item of interest is the "Westminster Shares" program which is a part of the college's extra-curricular life. The purpose has been to contribute $1,000 to a world student service fund, and $2,000 to the support of a foreign college faculty. Robert Noble represented the school last year at Gordon college, Pakistan. Another Westminster graduate will go out next year to an Egyptian college.

Points Out Dangers

In closing Dr. Orr pointed out the danger presented through federal aid to education, which is being suggested on many hands. If the government begins supporting education, it is only another step for them to dictate what subjects will be taught. There seems to be a trend on the part of the American people towards going to the government for support, instead of the government coming to the people. The question which is beginning to confront education is this: "Shall we have schools supported by the people, by private grants, and by Christian foundations or shall we sit by and see them supported by federal doles, and dictated to by the government?" he stated.

The real future of America, he said, will be best served by a government that is the servant of the people, rather than to have the people afraid and the servant of the government.

To these principles, Westminster college is dedicated, namely to serve the residents of Lawrence county and its environs to the best of its ability under a Christian atmosphere," he said in conclusion.

Budget-For-Health Plan Is Being Advocated

By ED HAUCK
(L. S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, March 14 — Pennsylvania's medical and dental professions today are pressing a budget-for-health plan as another voluntary measure to combat the threat of socialized medicine.

Pennsylvania is slated to be the guidepost for the program which allows patients to pay medical bills similar on the installment plan through local bureaus operated by members of the professions, according to the Harrisburg Medical Bureau.

Bureaus Operating

Medical bureaus also are operating in Lancaster, Pittsburgh and Johnstown. Several other counties are setting up units.

The purpose of the bureau movement is to create a business headquarters authorized by doctors and dentists to handle business details of the plan.

The bureau offers around the clock emergency call service and a public health directory besides the plan.

"Budget-for-health is available only to patients of physicians and dentists who hold membership in the organization," advises one brochure. "It supplements Blue Cross and Blue Shield voluntary health insurance where the full medical expenditures are not covered."

"It aids individuals and families who are not under the other two services."

Follows Simple Outline

The plan follows a simple outline. Patients engage participating doctors or dentists who refers them to the medical bureau to arrange payment to the blueprint.

The patient is free to set the terms. No charges are added for the service to the patient. The amount of the fee is the sole re-payment.

Upon completion of services the doctor is paid in full by the bureau and the patient remits installments to the medical bureau.

The bureau requires financed accounts, old or new, if they amount to $50 or more. Permanent residence in the area where the bureau is established is necessary along with an acceptable credit rating with the local credit bureau. No advance payments are necessary nor are co-signers or endorsement by any other party except the contractor, according to the plan.

The Consumers Discount Act in Pennsylvania was revised in 197 to permit this plan to be employed exclusively by medical bureaus in Pennsylvania. In this way there is no competition with loan and finance agencies, the medical bureau reports.

Sanctioned by Medical Society

Each bureau is sanctioned by the county medical society in which it is located. The county societies are members of the Pennsylvania Medical Society.

The proponents declare the budget-for-health plan "fights socialized medicine and socialized dentistry."

"Dentists, in particular," states promotion literature, "are extremely anxious for the success of the plan since it is the only one which guarantees full payment. Blue Shield which is chiefly a pre-paid insurance plan to absorb doctor bills does not include dentists."

Under the arrangement the head of a family can engage a dentist for the entire family and lump the entire bill instead of paying individual expenses for each member. Expectant parents can arrange to cover hospital and doctor bills months before children are born. In some cases much of the cost is taken care of before delivery.

The cost of operating the bureau is absorbed by the member physicians and dentists monthly dues and service fees.

Nash sales growth since the war has been more than 4 times as great as that of the Automotive Industry as a whole* . . .

WHY NASH?

*In the four post-war years just ended, Nash sales have increased 95.7% over the same period previous, while the industry registered only a 21.3% gain, post-war over pre-war.

Why Nash? Because Nash has consistently led in the power parade—builder of valve-in-head engines for a third of a century—a leader in high compression.

Because today Nash alone builds a valve-in-head engine of 7.3 to 1 compression ratio that utilizes regular gasoline.

Why Nash? Because Nash was first to automatically-controlled, pressurized heating and ventilation, probably the greatest single health, comfort and safety feature of the modern automobile.

Because today's Nash Weather Eye Conditioned Air System is still first in efficiency and in safety—with fresh, untainted air drawn from outside, above the engine compartment.

Why Nash? Because today's Nash Airflyte cars by scientific wind tunnel test have been proved to have 20.7% less air drag than the average of 10 other cars tested—with noticeably less wind-noise, less fuel consumption, and noticeably greater stability.

Why Nash? Because Nash was first to attack the problem of rust by Bonderizing and by more durable baked enamels.

Because today all sheet metal parts of a Nash Airflyte are many times more resistant to wear and fading.

Why Nash? Because today's Nash Airflyte offers more combined passenger and luggage space, dollar for dollar, than any other car.

Why Nash? Because Nash has been years ahead in the development of the car interior. First to have the curved, one-piece windshield on all models, and Uniscope—and today is the only car offering an Airliner Reclining Seat and Twin Beds.

West Berlin May Establish Militia

BERLIN, March 14—(INS)—West Berlin officials were reported today considering the establishment of a civilian militia to meet the threat of a Communist march to the western sectors on March 20—Whitsunday.

Social Democratic officials admitted that while no specific plans had yet been made, the strengthening of the Communist-controlled East German police around West Berlin is "forcing the West Berlin population to decide to what they must undertake for their security."

Mayor Ernest Reuter of West Berlin already has warned that any Communist attempt to march on his sector will be vigorously resisted by his police. He vowed they will defend the city's freedom "at the barricades if necessary."

Anderson who is married, is a line foreman for the Bell Telephone company. He served four years in the army with the 431st Signal Construction Battalion and served 38 months in overseas service.

He will receive the maximum when his check finally arrives.

The approximate cost of the Pentagon building in Washington was $64 million.

City Receives Refund For Creek Work

City of New Castle recently received from the Commonwealth treasury a check for $10,010.00 as a refund for the state's dredging of Neshannock creek, preparatory to the construction of a bridge below South Mill street bridge.

In July, 1949, the city paid to the State Department of Forests and Waters $22,167, which was the engineer's estimated cost of the hauling and disposal of material dredged from the creek.

The state let the contract for the work and upon completion it was found that the city's liability in the project was about $12,150, hence the state returned to the city the difference between $12,150 and $22,167.

The state bore the actual dredging cost.

PERMITS TO BUILD

Construction permits issued by Edward Longacre, city building bureau clerk today follows:

Fred T. Baxter, 409 Hippo street, cinder block garage, cost $800; Seltzer & Young, 25 North Beaver street; cinder block garage, cost $500; David Gatral, 111 East Wallace avenue; frame garage, cost $1000, and Louis Regna, 604 Cherry street, block garage, $400.

Two Fires Occur In Wach Block Today

City firemen were called to the Wach Block, 30 West Long avenue, twice within eight hours today, for small fires.

At 3:30 o'clock, this morning, Andy Quinn, who resides in the building set his mattress afire. He escaped injury. Damage to the building amounted to about $10.

At 12:20 o'clock this afternoon, Mr. Quinn went into another apartment in the same building, and was attempting to do some cooking, when grease boiled over and caught fire. Fire Chief H. F. Steinbeck had Mr. Quinn placed under arrest at the second fire.

Invest Penny And Make Certain

PHILADELPHIA—(INS)—Francis V. Wills, chairman of the State War Trophy Safety committee, asks Pennsylvanians to invest a penny to insure that their souvenir firearms and ammunition are safe.

"In return for the investment of a penny postcard," Wills points out, "a person who owns a war trophy can receive the assurance that he is not harboring a lethal weapon in his home."

Upon receipt of the postcard, an expert will check the souvenirs to make sure they are harmless, he said.

He pointed to the fact that a Bryn Mawr youth was recently wounded by a blast from a 100-year-old shotgun which had been considered "harmless."

Big Beaver Is Host To Pomona*Discuss Brannan Plan Against Grange Plan

Lawrence County Pomona Grange held its regular meeting March 11 with Big Beaver Grange as host to the Grangers. George Brown, Pomona Overseer, presided in the absence of Pomona Master Dale Currie who is taking a seven weeks' tour of the West.

Reports were read from the Subordinate and Juvenile Granges of the county. Wayne Kennedy, Master of Big Beaver Grange extended words of welcome to the group with Francis Boak responding.

The afternoon session opened with W. H. McCullough leading in group singing. Following this the lecturer, Olive Emery announced the panel discussion—"A Plan for Agriculture or the Grange Plan vs. The Brannan Plan. Those participating were John Turner, Harry McCurley, Francis Boak, Ray Marshall and Given Shaw. The Grange Plan would establish a Federal Farm Commission which would eliminate problem of surpluses. Many times surpluses can be foreseen and decisions could be made on these surpluses which would not necessitate destruction. The commission would work with the secretary of agriculture, would keep continuing inventory of probable commodities and outlets. The commission would favor broad expansion of market agreements, flexible supports and production control if necessary.

Government Handouts?

The Brannan Plan puts the farmers at the mercy of the government, which would limit the farmers income and means more tax to the consumer. It means the farmer would surrender his freedom of action and decision. Farm market price would no longer perform its function of guiding production. Under the Brannan Plan the farmer's only hope for a fair income would depend on government handouts from annual appropriations by congress. The cost of the program would be staggering. Every dollar that goes into any support program has to be taken away from the people in taxes. It would mean regimentation and control of every farmer under such high supports. America wants an agriculture that earns its way, instead of being continually and increasingly dependent on government props. America wants genuine non political soil conservation, economically achieved.

Following this Mrs. Frank Jenkins and Hazel Wilson pleasantly sang "Whispering Hope" and "Memories of Galilee." The Big Beaver Juveniles presented two numbers of entertainment reading—"Stomach Ache" by Billy McChesney and due—Down in Oklahoma by Ruth and Gladys Miller.

Leadership School

Paul McCullough gave a report on the Leadership School which he attended at State College.

Mrs. Fred Seley gave a splendid review of "Rosanna of the Amish" by Yoder.

The annual lecturers, masters, juvenile matrons and home economic conference will be held at Mansfield State Teachers College April 3, 4, 5. It is expected that a large group will attend from the Lawrence County Granges.

The first of the Travelling Chest programs will be held at Wilmington Grange April 13 with East New Castle Grange giving the program. The young people of the Granges will enjoy a skating party at the Arena March 29. The next Pomona meeting will be at Mahoning Grange June 7.

New Drug Is Being Tested For Arthritis

PHILADELPHIA, March 14.—(INS)—Physicians are testing a new drug called "pregnenolone" on arthritis victims at Northeastern hospital today with what they describe as "promising" results.

Improvement was noted in all of the small number of patients on whom the drug was tried.

Dr. Mary V. Ruisi, head of the hospital's arthritis clinic, and Sr. Savere F. Madonna, chief of the medical department, reported they have been making the tests for the last three months.

The drug, which has not yet been distributed commercially, is reported to be very easily obtainable and much cheaper than acht and cortisone, two other new drugs being tried on arthritics.

Detroit Man Kills His Wife

Draws $5,000 From Bank Before Shooting

DETROIT, March 14.—(INS)—Detroit police were told today that Dr. Edward L. Brandt withdrew $5,000 from the bank for his wife's funeral expenses, 45 minutes before he shot and killed the 60-year-old woman.

The 66-year-old well-known Detroit physician told detectives he "didn't know why" he killed his wife, Cora, yesterday morning. Dr. Brandt was quoted as saying: "I lived with her for 40 years. There were no arguments... I just decided to kill her."

Mrs. Brandt's body was found in the bedroom of the couple's luxurious Oakman boulevard home. She was shot in the right side by a 12-gauge shotgun.

Dr. Brandt's body was found in the bedroom of the couple's luxurious Oakman boulevard home. She was shot in the right side by a 12-gauge shotgun.

Gave Him $5,000

Fr. Elmer A. Mahoney, assistant pastor of St. Cecilia's Roman Catholic church, arrived at the $50,000 home shortly before police came. The priest said Dr. Brandt called him by telephone.

Fr. Mahoney said the doctor gave him $5,000 with instructions to turn it over to his attorney to defray Mrs. Brandt's funeral expenses. The clergyman said Dr. Brandt confirmed his instructions for use of the money at police headquarters last night.

The doctor told detectives he went to the bank and took out $5,000 about 11 a. m. He said he wanted to have some money "available for his wife.

At the time of the shooting, Dr.

Brandt was awaiting trial on a narcotics charge. He was under federal indictment for illegal traffic of narcotics.

Medical Society To Call Meeting To Act On Dr. Sander's Case

MANCHESTER, N. H., March 14.—(INS)—The Hillsboro County Medical society prepared today to call a meeting to consider disciplinary action against Dr. Hermann N. Sander.

Five unnamed physicians made written requests for the meeting, but made no charges against the Hillsboro physician who was acquitted last week of the "mercy killing" of Mrs. Abbie C. Borroto.

The Hillsboro society is empowered to censure, suspend or expel the 41-year-old doctor. It cannot bar him from practice.

In any event, Dr. Sander will know his future as a physician before his local society can act. The state board of registration in medicine, the only body with authority to revoke his license to practice in New Hampshire, will hear his case at a closed meeting in Concord on April 12.

Under the by-laws of the county medical society, the full membership cannot act on any charges made against Dr. Sander for six weeks. By that time the state body will have made its decision.

A leading member of the Hillsboro group said an expulsion vote was "highly unlikely". He said such a vote requires a three-fourths majority.

Dr. Sander, now reported on a "southern trip", has indicated to friends that he will not resume practice until he is cleared by both the state board and his own county society.

AUTOMATION

DETROIT—(INS)—Industrialists have added a new word to their vocabulary. The word "Automation" has been coined to describe the process of converting to automatic operation something previously done by hand. The American Society of Tool Engineers explains this type of conversion is being made to reduce cost and the amount of physical labor required from the worker.

State Capitol*Home Rule Act Brings Problem*Philadelphia City Charter Body Runs Into Complications

HARRISBURG, March 14.—(INS)—When the legislature in 1949 set up the Philadelphia City Charter Commission under the 1922 Home Rule Act, little did lawmakers suspect that the framers of the proposed document would get into a wrangle over religion, realism and the United Nations. The Commission is charged with drafting the charter under which it is hoped Pennsylvania's largest city will function expeditiously. One group headed by Attorney Lewis M. Stevens, wants a spiritual approach to the charter's preamble while another faction, led by P. A. Wolkin, the commission's legislative aide, wants a realistic approach in the preamble... neither preamble has been adopted probably because of the strong stand taken by City Council President Frederic D. Garman... He is opposed because neither preamble contains the word God and he insists that it be inserted... "If we do not rely upon God in this undertaking we shall fail," Garman says. "The United Nations will fail because the name of God was left out of its constitution."

Judge Michael A. Musmanno of Allegheny county blitzed those men opposed to slating him for Lieutenant Governor on the Democratic slate with his customary aplomb... Philadelphia City Treasurer Richardson Dilworth, endorsed for Governor, was opposed to Musmanno as his running mate... was Musmanno a shrinking violet?... Indeed not... He merely went to Philadelphia where Dilworth was to speak at a small dinner affair, crashed the gate and in general took over the meeting... He spoke, volubly as usual, table hopped around the dining room and gaily waved to one and all... When he left, everybody knew Musmanno... He strong-armed the Democratic policy committee with a contingent of union leaders and strong personal friends when the committee met at Harrisburg to put the stamp of approval on candidates... By telephone and via the old button hole technique, Musmanno's "boys" sold him to the leaders.

The scheduled departure of Republican floor leader Charles H. Brunner, Jr., from the House of Representatives will leave Republicans in need of a new floor chief... By and large, the GOP is hard put to come up with leaders because of the refusal of the old timers in the delegation to accept responsibility... Best bet to succeed the Montgomery county lawmaker as floor leader assuming that he will win re-election, is Philadelphia's four-time assemblyman Charles C. Smith... Smith is one of the very few men with leadership qualities... He has headed the Philadelphia delegation for several sessions and during the last meeting was majority whip.

Youthful Rep. Robert F. Kent, of Crawford, who has considerable ambition and know-how picked up in two sessions, probably will go into the whip's office if re-elected and if Smith is pushed up to the floor leader's job.

Republicans are not overlooking the fact that they may be the minority delegation when the 1951 session convenes... If so, the strategy of choosing a leader will be revised to allow selection of a man who has the very special qualifications needed to keep the majority bloc to the rights of the minority.

The Duff-Fine campaign leaders have retired Allen Davis, veteran newspaperman and free-lance political engineer, to handle the publicity for the 1950 campaign.

Davis was a brilliant political editor for the Philadelphia Bulletin until about 15 years ago when he quit to strike out on his own.

He will work out of a plush suite in Harrisburg's Penn Harris hotel which also is headquarters for Jay Cooke who seeks the gubernatorial nod over John S. Fine who is the running mate of Gov. James H. Duff, a candidate for the U. S. Senate... Cooke raided Republican State Committee headquarters for the services of Leroy V. Greene, of Camp Hill, who was the personal appointee of State Chairman M. Harvey Taylor.

Greene served in the Pacific battle area during World War II and is the author of the Army's official version of the fall of Corregidor as an aftermath to the battle of Bataan.

Mother Shoots Self Before Small Son

PHILADELPHIA, March 14.—(INS)—A seven-year-old boy sobbed to police today that he was not strong enough to "take the gun away from Mommy".

The boy, George Unger, watched in horror, he said, as his mother, Elizabeth, 29, shot herself in the abdomen last night.

The incident occurred after her husband George, 31, had gone outside to look for their other child, Betty, two.

When he returned, he asked George where his mother was, and the child sobbed:

"Mommy's upstairs. She did something to herself."

Unger raced upstairs and found his wife unconscious. She died four hours later in a hospital with a bullet wound in the abdomen.

The sun will be eclipsed March 18 and September 12, 1950.

Pituitary Glands Producing Hormones Now Being Grown

NEW YORK, March 14.—(INS)—Pituitary glands actively producing hormones that may help in the fight against cancer are being grown successfully outside the body.

Dr. Leonard A. Scheele, surgeon general of the United States, said in an address last night:

"About 150 glands derived from rats have been successfully grown outside the body, some for as long as ten weeks, and there is every indication that they can be maintained for a much longer period."

Although the glands are taken from rats, he said, the hormones are similar to those of humans.

The experiments are being carried on at the National Cancer Institute at Bethesda, Md.

One of the hormones harvested by the new method is ACTH, which has given relief to many victims of arthritis. In some cases it has checked leukemia, considered to be a form of cancer.

Art Of Witchcraft Charge Is Made

WILMINGTON, Del., March 14.—(INS)—A 23-year-old woman handwriting analyst was charged by Wilmington police today with utilizing the "art of witchcraft."

Detectives said that Mrs. Helen Evans advertised that she interpreted character from handwriting.

The advertisement attracted a girl who was told by Mrs. Evans, according to police, that her handwriting indicated she was under a curse.

Mrs. Evans gave the girl a "charm" and instructed her to return in a few days with $10 at which time the curse would be lifted, according to police.

Mrs. Evans was released pending a hearing on the colonial charge which is punishable by a $100 fine and imprisonment of not more than a year.

First shoemaker in the United States was one Thomas Beard, who came to Massachusetts from London in 1629.

Estimates Truman Best Paid In World

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(INS)—Rep. Woodruff (R) Mich., took a look at the President's pay and privileges and estimated the Chief Executive's "real" salary amounts to more than three million dollars a year.

Woodruff said this would make Mr. Truman "probably one of the best, if not the best paid man in the world today."

The Michigan lawmaker estimated the presidential pay, after taxes, at $110,000 annually. But he said this is "peanuts" compared to the "extras," such as the yacht Williamsburg, a private four-engine airplane, vacation retreats, railroad cars, etc.

Hershey, opening a two-week western selective service congress at the Alameda Naval Air station, said yesterday the organization is "down to skin and bones—and short of skin most places."

He called selective service an insurance policy and declared that in the event of war an efficient draft system could save up to 250,000 lives and several months delay in getting the nation's manpower where it would be most needed.

He also predicted that when women find after three or four cities are attacked that they aren't safe" they will demand to take a part in the actual shooting.

R. I. Davis, safety director, said today he expects the new fire truck bought from the American LaFrance company, Elmira, N.Y., to arrived in May.

Believes Draft Service Has Been Cut To Danger Line

ALAMEDA, Cal., March 14.—(INS)—Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey believes the selective service setup which he heads has been cut to a dangerous minimum.

Hershey, opening a two-week western selective service congress at the Alameda Naval Air station, said yesterday the organization is "down to skin and bones—and short of skin most places."

TEEN-AGE PROBLEM

"I am a high school boy with a very small allowance. I am fond of a wonderful girl in my class but am unable to go to shows and dances with her unless her parents either supply the tickets or go along with us to bear expenses. I feel somewhat embarrassed at accepting these offers. Do you think I should refuse?"

Answer: Your girl's parents cannot pay you a higher compliment than thus showing their willingness to pay for your ticket whenever their daughter wants you to share her entertainment. It is proper for you to accept this hospitality if you occasionally offer some to the girl—a movie and soda or coke at your favorite drugstore. No one expects more from a high school boy whose income usually consists of family "handouts" or possibly stipend for messenger service at the corner grocery store.

She and her parents must be fond of you to include you so often in their social schedule. To lessen your embarrassment, explain to your parents your problems and suggest to them that your dilemma would be less worrisome if they would occasionally return the girl's hospitality by including her in some amusement in which you, too, would share.

Don't be secretive with your parents regarding problems involving this girl. Don't consider her "too wonderful" for your own family even if her family has more of this world's goods than yours.

Question: My daughter plans to be married soon. Her father is not living and I am remarried. She suggested that her grandfather, who is my step-father should give her away. I don't want to have anyone's feelings hurt, but I think that my husband should give her away. What do you think is correct?

Answer: If she has no objection, it would be a gracious gesture for your husband to be asked to give her away.

Present your problem to Miss Markel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

Criminal Court
Opens MondayBoth Courts Are Now Being Used

March term of criminal court opened Monday with a short list of cases to be tried. Judge Walter Braham presided in court room number one and Judge John G. Lamoree in court room two.

Thirty seven jurors were excused from duty, leaving 63 available for duty. The list is a short one and should be finished before the end of the week.

In court room one Dorothy McElligott went on trial upon a charge of fraudulently removing an automobile. The prosecutor, Joseph W. Summers of Ellwood City claims he repaired her car at a cost of about $400 and that before the bill was paid the defendant got it out by trickery.

Court room two saw its first criminal trial Monday since it was improved. Owen Ransom of Boyles avenue is charged with driving while intoxicated. He claims he had taken some anti-histamine tablets and was dizzy when he was picked up in New Wilmington.

Pics were entered by Robert Watkins, upon a charge of burglary.

Lee Lane and Matthew May pleaded to driving while intoxicated.

Believe Relief Rolls
Will Begin To Sag
In Pennsylvania

HARRISBURG, March 14.—(INS)—Relief officials today predict general assistance rolls will begin to sag late in March as a direct result of the bituminous coal strike settlement.

During the last half of February, when the coal strike's grip on economy grew tighter, Pennsylvania's relief rolls increased by 12,627 persons to a total of 475,318, according to the state department of public assistance.

All but 434 of the total increase was spread over the 19 soft coal producing districts, according to the DPA.

"With the settlement of the strike," the department stated, "the rolls may be expected to reverse their upward movement. However, it is probable that no substantial decline will occur until later in March by which time most of the miners will have received their first pay."

Expenditures during February, the DPA reported, amounted to $13,528,000 of which the federal government contributed $4,186,000 as its share of the old age assistance and aid to dependent children's programs. The state pays the full cost of general assistance and shares in the other two categories of relief with the government. February relief costs were $934,000 above those reported for January.

BRINGING UP FATHER

BY GEORGE McMANUS

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

Is Shyness Inherited?

"Of course, Billy is a shy child? What else could you expect? His father was the same way when he was a boy."

How common a reaction this is! And how natural!

To blame heredity is such a simple thing. We know that color of eyes, physical stature, intelligence and many other things are handed down through the generations. Why not a co-operative attitude, temper or shyness?

In a sense, such things are inherited. But it's not biologically through the parents. Children growing up in a family where shyness is a dominant reaction of one or both parents often will learn the same pattern of behavior. It's "social heredity," rather than biological heredity, that accounts for such similarity.

Shyness is also developed through certain other ways. If a youngster is pushed too much into being active socially, or if, before he is comfortable about being with other children, he is forced to play with them, he may develop feelings of shyness. If he is over-protected he may also become a shy child.

The evidence is clear. It's the family relationships, the experiences that a child has, which is accountable for shy behavior. As far as we can tell at present, heredity plays little, if any, part.

And all this is comforting. For if we know shyness is "learned," we are much more likely to be able to figure out experiences that will overcome it than if it were inherited.

NEW CEMENT

Today, after eight years in Hollywood, Graef finally found himself in his first film. He is a chicken-hearted gangster, with William Holden and Barry Fitzgerald, in Paramount's "Union Station."

After eleven years—counting the three he spent on Broadway looking for stage parts—he has one role.

"Yeah," repeated Graef, who still is determined to become a successful character star. "You simply gotta have endurance. Whoever says this is a soft life oughta have his head examined."

That was before World War II. Paramount gave him a screen test. Columbia studios signed him. And he sat around Hollywood doing nothing.

But Fred did not give up.

Opened Laundry

He opened a laundrette with borrowed money, and turned a nice profit taking in washing for the women of the neighborhood. Meanwhile, he always was on the go—studying and negotiating for roles. The Columbia let him go—with REMEMBER the story of the Sirens? They sang of their beautiful, trouble-free paradise. But passing ships that ventured too near soon found themselves on the rocks.

Sirens aren't lost in legend—some are still around, still singing a beautiful song: "Unload your troubles and responsibilities on the government's shoulders. Give the government control of this industry—and that service—and your worries are over."

Your liberties are over, too, for that's how a socialistic form of government takes over a nation.

Don't think it can't happen to America. Because right here, right now, there are people who say: "Let the government control the doctors, the railroads, the newspapers, the electric light and power companies. Government control is good for the people!"

It's strange, but true, that many people who say such things—like most Americans—don't really want a socialistic government. But the effect is the same. When a government controls enough industries and services, a socialistic nation is the result whether people want it or not!

Each time government gains a new control, you lose another freedom. And Americans have more rights and freedoms to guard—or lose—than any other nation on earth. Remember that, when you hear the Siren song. Your freedom is at stake!

Student Goes On Trial Today For Girl's Death

IOWA CITY, Ia., March 14.—(INS)—Handsome Robert Bednasek, 24-year-old student of abnormal psychology, goes on trial today in Iowa City for the rooming-house slaying of the co-ed sweetheart he waded with erotic poetry.

A panel of 56 prospective jurors will crowd the tiny Johnson county district courtroom, which holds only 85 spectators, when Bednasek faces a charge of strangling pretty Margaret "Gee Gee" Jackson, 20, last Dec. 11 in the rage of frustrated love.

The young Burlington, Ia., co-ed was found strangled in a borrowed bedroom at the "Empty Arms," the shabby men's rooming house where Bednasek lived, after the couple had shared lobster-and-burgundy supper by candlelight, a formal fraternity party, and dances in the dark on phonograph music.

County prosecutor Jack White has promised:

"I'm going to stretch that boy."

Bednasek claims his sweetheart—who also was a psychology student—interrupted their dancing to play a favorite campus game, "black-out" in which the players press each other's throats to induce temporary unconsciousness.

Suddenly, he said, the girl collapsed at his feet. He summoned police who found the co-ed's body, still clad in her white strapless evening gown, lying on a double-deck bunk.

Seeking New Oil Sources In Pennsylvania Now

By AL SPIVAK
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, March 14.—Mineral-rich Pennsylvania today is undergoing additional underground tapping for new sources of oil.

Despite a plentiful supply of the fuel, nationally, oil men sense that stocks are not inexhaustible and they must step into new areas to find additional sources of supply. A minor "boom" swept six counties in the central part of the state where major producers are testing for oil for the first time in the region's history.

Rich Oil Producer

Western Pennsylvania already has proved a rich oil producer, although never on as inviolable an economic basis as the western states. Pennsylvania oil is more difficult to produce, resulting in added costs, which are offset by a better grade of oil heavy with lubricant qualities.

Chief Geologist S. H. Cathcart of Pennsylvania minimizes the effects of a "boom" should oil be found in areas where its presence is suspected.

Landowners would get quick money, he indicated, through royalty payments of one-eighth of the gross oil production. Some new business might develop through an influx of workers, he said, but within a few years crews tending the wells would be at minimum size.

"It's not like opening a big factory," he said. "It wouldn't have the same economic advantage as that to a community."

New Fields Investigated

The new oil fields being investigated are in Bradford, Union, Sullivan, Northumberland, Montour and Lycoming counties.

There has been almost no drilling for oil in those areas before,

Cathcart said, although there has been at Schellsburg in Bedford county.

"The Bedford well can be called a good possibility," Cathcart said, although in any of the areas being explored he is "expecting only moderate production."

"Don't expect to see an east Texas sprung up in Pennsylvania," he cautions.

A Pennsylvania producer of oil could not operate on as low a price level as prevails throughout the United States, he added, because of the methods necessary to bring oil to the surface in the so-called "dead oil fields" of the Keystone state.

In McKean County

"About 80 per cent of the state's production of oil is centered at the Bradford oil fields in McKean county," Cathcart said.

There, water must be forced into the sub-surface areas to force the oil out—an expensive process. In the rest of the state's oil fields gas and air repressuring is widely used, he said. The secondary recover methods cause greater prices than are prevalent in younger oil areas where the methods are not needed.

Despite hints several years ago that the nation was running short of oil, Cathcart maintained "oil supply is good in the United States."

Declining prices in the competition-ridden west coast bear out Cathcart's opinion, as do oil industry bowls against further importation of "black gold" from the Middle East.

However, stocks can't last forever, he said, and oil men pondering the future are finally turning to new Pennsylvania areas for potential oil supplies—areas shunned in the past and labelled "marginal."

While Miss Pozzuto attended the Mid-West Beauty Trade Show, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Stewart of Greenville spent Sunday with relatives here.

Five More Cities Seek Housing Units

HARRISBURG, March 14.—(INS)—The State Planning Board is examining five bids for state subsidies to erect 514 housing units in Easton, Philadelphia, Lancaster, Connellsburg and York.

The five new projects boosts the total to 18 cities and towns which have bid for state aid from the $15,000,000 allocated by the 1949 General Assembly as part of a $50,000,000 long range answer to the housing shortage. The balance of the money will come from private capital.

Contract awards on the bids received yesterday will be delayed until the board compares them with standard blueprints laid down by law. There was only one bidder for each of the five projects.

Pat Veltre Shows Musical Ability

Pat Veltre, a senior at Indiana State Teachers' college, Indiana, Pa., will be graduated in May with a music major. Pat is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bartolo Veltre of Hillsdale, and a graduate of the Bessemer high school.

He received his preliminary musical education from his father, who has been an instructor in music for the past forty years. Pat has been active in all musical activities, such as mixed chorus, symphony orchestra, concert band, and a member of the Phi Alpha Zeta fraternity.

A band, organized by the youth during the past summer, played an overture which he had composed, at a concert given in Hillsdale last year. During the home football games in Indiana in 1949, the drills and marches used by the band were planned, conducted, and synchronized to the music of Mr. Veltre.

Pat is doing his student teaching in Johnstown, Pa., this semester, and has made no definite decisions for his future work.

MONEY PLAYER

SAN FRANCISCO, (INS)—Henry Bettman, San Francisco manager of a printing firm liked to play Canasta so well he proposed solitaire canasta. They laughed when he sat down to deal but now Bettman's 89-cent treatise on solitaire Canasta is going into a fourth printing of 50,000 copies.

Penna. Power Co. Bond Issue Awarded

Pennsylvania Power Company, a subsidiary of Ohio Edison Company, announced today that Halsey, Stuart and Company was awarded a new issue of $3,000,000 First Mortgage Bonds due 1980. The bonds were sold under competitive bidding rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The bid, subject to the commission's approval, was 100.73 for 23 1/4% bonds. The public offering price will be 101.25.

Proceeds from the sale of the bonds will be used in connection with the company's construction program.

C. D. Of A. Plans For Initiation

Final Rehearsal
Planned Tonight

Catholic Daughters of America, Court Teresa Irene No. 231 are making final plans for the gala initiation event scheduled for Sunday afternoon, March 19, at the Castleton, at 2:30 p.m. A dinner will be served at 5:30 p.m.

These plans were discussed at the Monday evening meeting held in St. Mary's auditorium, with regent Mrs. Marie Jones in charge. Business was conducted and a donation was given to the Red Cross.

Mrs. Evelyn Woods gave an excellent report of an entertainment at the women's ward in the Deshion hospital. Butler by several of the Court members. This event was held recently.

Two To Graduate

She also brought to mind that two Court members, Mrs. Eva Nelson and Mrs. Catherine Flynn will graduate as Grey Ladies at the Deshion hospital on March 16. Members are invited to attend the ceremonies.

Mrs. Marie Jones, grand regent was elected as delegate to attend the C. D. of A. convention in the William Penn hotel, Pittsburgh, on May 20-24. A group from the Court are planning to attend the sessions.

In connection with the initiation, a final rehearsal is scheduled for this evening at 8 o'clock, at the Castleton. All degree team members, seminar and choir members are to attend.

The district deputy, Sarah Bea- trice of Ellwood City will be in charge tonight.

Honored guests will attend the Sunday event, including state regent Frances Maher and many out of town grand regents and guests.

American War Widow Ordered To Leave

JAKARTA, March 14.—(INS)— Indonesian immigration officials today ordered Mrs. Marguerite Allen, an American war widow of San Angelita, Tex., to leave the country tomorrow.

The order was issued on grounds that her visa had expired and would not be extended. Mrs. Allen said:

"They told me my only crime was that I went to Bandoeng last week without an official permit."

Mrs. Allen formally worked with the Tokyo war crimes prosecution staff. Later she wrote material for the Chinese Nationalist government at Canton and recently was with the United Nations in Singapore.

Donora Smog Group Charges Pollution Continues In Area

WEBSTER, Pa., March 14.—(INS)—An anti-smog group today charged that air pollution conditions in the Donora-Webster district remain "deplorable".

The Society for Better Living, Inc., said its investigating committee reported heavy smoke concentrations during the first week of March. The society was formed following the Donora smog tragedy of October 1948 and has continuously battled for air pollution legislation.

The society issued the following report:

"During the first week in March, air pollution conditions in the Donora-Webster district were deplorable. Residents reported heavy smoke concentrations in particular, during the hours of 6 and 9 a.m.

"No other area in the state is subjected to such continually bad conditions. The society can only describe the present conditions as unhealthy and potentially dangerous."

Police Explore

Clues In Death

Near Duncannon

HARRISBURG, March 14.—(INS)—Police today are seeking to find whether foul play might have entered into the death of Charles Lomman, 46, whose body was discovered lying in 18 inches of water in Sherman's creek yesterday.

The Duncannon man was found about 12 feet from shore. Duncannon Police Chief H. L. Fritz and State Police Sgt. Joseph Pochyba said that Lomman might have been pushed off a small bridge spanning the Penn's creek.

No death certificate was issued last night by Perry County Coroner L. C. Morrisey. He said that he would wait until it is determined whether the victim fell or was thrown from the bridge.

Dr. Ronald Gaspide of Duncannon, performed an autopsy, results of which were not revealed.

Duncannon and state police said that they are exploring several theories.

Fairly Severe Quake Shock Is Recorded

NEW YORK, March 14.—(INS)—The Rev. Joseph J. Lynch, Fordham university seismologist, announced today that a "fairly severe" earthquake occurred last night 3,200 miles south of New York.

The epicenter of the quake was estimated near the border of Ecuador and Peru. The shocks were registered at 10:18:35 p. m. (EST) and 10:25:27 p. m.

'Truman' And 'Stalin' Are Thrown Out

PARIS, March 14.—(INS)—"President Truman" and "Premier Stalin" have been thrown out bodily from a venerable Paris establishment.

No disrespect was intended by the proprietors.

It's just that the patrons of Paris' famous Grevin Wax Museum want to have nothing at all to do with politics these days.

"The French are fed up with politicians," gestured Gerald Blanchard, a veteran guard at the museum. "During and just after the war it was different. People flocked after the liberation to see Stalin, Truman, Bidault, Churchill and all the others."

"Now they'd rather forget about politics and look at Napoleon, Marie Antoinette and perhaps a few soldiers."

Consequently, the 68-year-old Grevin Museum has obliged the public by removing the impressive wax images of the leading cold war participants and replacing them with subjects more amenable to the public's taste.

Foreign Minister Of Czech Government Has Resigned Post

PRAGUE, March 14.—(INS)—The Communist Czechoslovak government announced today the resignation of Dr. Vladimír Clementis as foreign minister.

Premier Antonín Zapotocký announced the resignation following a weekly cabinet meeting. He said that Václav Široký, deputy prime minister, will handle the tasks of the foreign ministry for the present.

Zapotocký's announcement said that Clementis has been relieved of his post "at his own request".

Announcement of Clementis' resignation aroused immediate speculation in world capitals regarding possibility of a crisis in the Czech government headed by President Klement Gottwald.

Christ Lutheran Contest Begins

An interesting feature, introduced last Sunday, at Christ Lutheran Sunday school is an attendance contest. Jack Daniels and Gerhard Schluemer are serving as team captains under the direction of Superintendent A. M. Hyde. Extending beyond Easter, the contest will lead up to the congregation's silver anniversary week, June 4-11.

Installation of a modern, large screen, last week and regular presentations of newly released films add to interest of assemblies. The school completed one year of regular sound-film showings and is now planning its 1950 Daily Vacation Bible school.

'Guess Who The Reds Elected,' On Sunday

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(INS)—Russia's elections were held Sunday and 99.6 percent of the populace turned out to vote the government way on the one-party, one-candidate ticket.

Premier Stalin was reported re-elected unanimously.

And the Washington Times-Herald ran the story under the heading:

"Guess Who Reds Elected?"

L.C.U.S. Has Installation

New Duties Are Assumed By Group

New officers of the Lawrence County Union of Sodalities were installed at a ceremony conducted in the Catholic Center of the Church of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary, recently in Ellwood City.

Rev. Fr. Albert M. Inteso was in charge and the following officers were installed: President, Catherine DeSimone; vice president, Peg O'Leary; recording secretary, Eleanor Klaber; corresponding secretary, Mary Leone; treasurer, Jeannie Domiano; and committeemen: Eucharistic, Delores Alberico; Our Lady's, Dorothea Brinko; Apostolic, Helen Tumminella; Catholic Truth, Ann Heaney; Social Life, Camilla Augustine; and Publicity, Joan Lukas.

After the installation the regular meeting was held at which time president Catherine DeSimone announced that a Day of Recollection would be held at the close of the Lenten Season, but as yet, no definite date was set.

Rev. Fr. Albert M. Inteso gave a short address and Fr. Joswick of the Church of the Blessed Virgin Mary congratulated the new officers and wished them success in the coming year.

Delores Alberico, Eucharistic chairman gave an interesting talk on Holy Week; Dorothy Brinko chairman of Our Lady's committee spoke on the Seven Dolors of the Blessed Virgin Mary; Helen Tumminella, Apostolic chairman, spoke on Saint Joseph; and Ann Heaney, Catholic Truth chairman, spoke on Vocations with Sister Miriam Joseph, moderator of St. Mary's Sodality, giving her contribution on a nun's life as a vocation.

Camilla Augustine, Social Life chairman, conducted a quiz on words with all the Sodalists participating, and Joan Lukas, publicity chairman, with the help of Berendine Duda and Julia Salomon spoke on three of the important feast days in March.

A few words were heard from Sister Joseph Catherine of St. Mary's and Sister Norma and Sister Esther of the Church of the Blessed Virgin Mary, after which Fr. Inteso closed the meeting with prayer and Rita Felice distributed the Sodality paper. The Sodality Next meeting will be held at Ma donna church.

An informal social time was enjoyed afterwards by the group with members of the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary serving refreshments.

Plan To Check Charges By Sen. McCarthy

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(INS)—Senate investigators lined up a legal staff of former FBI agents today to check charges of Sen. McCarthy (R) Wis., that Communists have sneaked into the State department.

The Tydings subcommittee considering the allegations scheduled an early hearing for McCarthy this morning and the first person he accused, Miss Dorothy Kenyon, of New York, in the afternoon.

Democrats on the five man committee, it was learned, have picked a former Federal Bureau of Investigation man, now a practicing attorney, to serve as chief counsel. Chairman Tydings (D) Md., will recommend a "co-counsel."

Tydings also announced he hopes to hire four former or present FBI men as staff assistants to sift through the various loyalty and personnel records involved in the inquiry.

In this way, it was indicated by other sources, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover will be less disturbed about making his records available to the Senate group.

CITY SITES

CHICAGO—(INS)—Industrialists in increasing numbers are looking to the smaller outlying cities as locations for their new plants. According to the American Society of Planning Officials this was the conclusion of the Detroit regional planning commission after a study of the movement of manufacturing establishments within the metropolitan area between 1937 and 1949, and the factors influencing location of plants.

Jury To Hear Facts In Brutal Girl Slaying

(BULLETIN)

LANCASTER, Pa., March 14.—District Attorney John M. Ranck today demanded a first degree murder verdict against Edward L. Gibbs, 25-year-old college senior, for the slaying of a pretty campus secretary.

By ED HAUCK
(N.Y. Staff Correspondent)

LANCASTER, Pa., March 14.—A jury will hear for the first time today the state's undisclosed details of the brutal bludgeoning of a pretty blonde college secretary on lonely lovers lane.

Even leading to the slaying of Marion Louise Baker, 21, will be unfolded by Lancaster County District Attorney John M. Ranck to a jury of five women and seven men chosen late yesterday to try Edward L. Gibbs, 25-year-old senior at Franklin and Marshall college.

Ranck is expected to outline to the jurors the state's contention that careful planning rather than "impulse" motivated the killing.

The attractive victim often carried large sums of college money to a bank for deposit, and it was during a college errand that she was picked up by Gibbs and driven to a lovers lane, the state contends.

Shocked Community

The killing so shocked the normally staid Lancaster county area, with its many "plain people" from the Amish and Mennonite sects, that attorneys found it difficult to select 12 jurors who had no convictions about the case.

A panel of 110 men and women was exhausted and more than 30 persons were rounded up on the streets outside the ancient courthouse by sheriff's deputies late yesterday as an additional panel before the jurors and two alternates were chosen.

Although Ranck refused to say whether he planned to seek the death penalty for the husky college senior, he rejected many prospective jurors because they were opposed to capital punishment.

The jury is made up of five housewives, two farmers, two clerks, an electrical appliance store manager, a factory worker and a laborer.

All-Star Pro Team Selected

NEW YORK, March 14.—George Mikan, point-making wizard of the Minneapolis Lakers, made the National Basketball Association All-Star team today—to the surprise of many.

What was surprising was "Large George's" failure to gain unanimous support. One ballot failed to list him for the honor team, that also included Alex Groza of Indianapolis, Bob Davies of Rochester, Max Zaslofsky of Chicago and Jim Pollard of Minneapolis.

Second team selections were Al Cervi and Adolph Schayes of Syracuse, Ralph Beard of Indianapolis, Frank Brian of Anderson and Fred Schaus of Fort Wayne.

In league competition last night, Anderson defeated Sheboygan, 98 to 86.

Solemn Novena To Start Tonight

Weekly Devotions Theme Is Peace

This evening the solemn novena honoring St. Anthony will start at St. Vitus church and will continue every Tuesday until the Feast of St. Anthony.

The jury is made up of five housewives, two farmers, two clerks, an electrical appliance store manager, a factory worker and a laborer.

RICH HILL

CHURCH SERVICES

Sunday school at 10:15; Ernest Carr, supt.; morning worship, 11:15; Rev. A. B. Weisz, pastor.

The Women's Missionary meeting will be Wednesday, March 15, at the home of Mrs. John Barron; Mrs. Scott Kirk, leader.

A week's evangelistic service is planned for April 2 through April 9, with communion service on April 9.

RICH HILL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell McConnell, of near Volant, spent Monday evening with the James McConnell family.

Two services will be held each Tuesday the first at 6:30 p.m., and the second at 8 p.m.

This year the novena will be held in conjunction with special prayers for the Holy Year and the hope of the Holy Father the Pope that the people return to Christ, and the return of a peaceful nation.

The Holy Year is a year of general forgiving and the people are asked to pray often, in this time of crisis.

Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita, pastor will conduct services. Rev. Fr. Albert M. Inteso will speak on "St. Anthony and the Holy Year".

Many devotees will not be able to attend the Holy Year ceremonies in Rome, and Father Inteso will explain how devotees can gain the plenary indulgences attached to the trip by Holy Year pilgrims, by just attending the services of the special solemn novena.

The shrine of St. Anthony is being appropriately decorated with lovely flowers, and it is expected as in previous years many devotees will attend the Tuesday evening devotions. Also to assist at the services will be Rev. Fr. Raymond Heintz.

Men's Brotherhood Of New Wilmington U.P. Church To Meet

Men's Brotherhood of the New Wilmington U. P. church will hold its first meeting Thursday evening, March 16, at 6:30 in the social hall of the church, it is announced by president Thomas Sarver.

Dinner will be served by the Young Women's guild of the church. Devotionals and motion pictures will feature the social program.

Committees will be appointed by the president at the business meeting.

SINCLAIR RESEARCH SOLVES 40-YEAR PROBLEM OF RUST AND CORROSION IN AUTO FUEL SYSTEMS

ANTI-RUST Chemical Now Blended into POWER-PACKED Sinclair Gasolines

Ever since the first automobile chugged down Main Street, car makers have been trying to lick the problem of rust and corrosion in gasoline tanks and fuel systems.

This problem is serious because water forms daily inside your gasoline tank when the warm, moist air above the gasoline condenses on the cooler metal walls. This water rusts and corrodes gasoline tanks and fuel systems. Rust and corrosion clog carburetor jets, and cause jerky performance, stalling and costly repairs. Sinclair Research has at last solved this problem by developing an amazing chemical called RD-119—now blended into POWER-PACKED SINCLAIR GASOLINES.

This miracle chemical coats your gasoline tank and entire fuel system with an invisible, water-proof film that stops rust and corrosion.

Fill your tank with new Anti-Rust Sinclair H-C or Sinclair Ethyl Gasoline. Use it regularly for continued protection.

Sinclair Fuel Oil also contains RD-119

Titans Top New Britain Teachers 70-62 In NAIB First Round

Last Period Rally Brings Victory; To Meet Davis-Elkins Wednesday

KANSAS CITY, March 14.—Westminster's Titans pushed into second round play in the NAIB tournament here last night by defeating New Britain Teachers College 70-62 in a closely fought contest.

A strong final period drive enabled the Titans to salvage a victory over a New Britain quintet that was leading midway of the third period. The Titans clinched the victory by holding the Connecticut team to three points while making 11 in the final 10 minutes.

Westminster took an early lead in the contest and led 38-32 at the halfway mark. The Titans began to falter early in the third period and New Britain forged ahead 41-40 midway of the quarter. Westminster tied up the game 55-55 at the end of the third quarter and pulled away to win in the final frame.

Meyers Hits Three

Three long set shots by freshman Don Meyers in the third quarter helped the Titans keep pace with New Britain in that crucial period.

Big Ed Halas was in the starting lineup for the Titans for the first time this season. Halas, who has turned in several outstanding performances in recent games, started at a forward position along with Bruce Wagner. Jack Jones was shifted to guard position in the lineup. Pat King held down the other guard position and Allen McCullough started at his regular position at center.

McCullough, playing his usual superior brand of ball, led the Titans in the scoring department with 12 points, all accumulated in the first half. He was forced out of the game early in the third period via the personal foul route.

Use Reserves

Washabaugh leaned heavily on reserve strength in the contest. Meyers, who was in much of the contest, poured in 11 points. Dick Fuhrer, who replaced McCullough at center, came through with nine points in the final half.

New Britain held the height advantage over the Titans. Big six foot, seven inch center Bill Carlson caused Westminster trouble throughout the contest. His control of the backboards and accurate shooting kept the New Britain quintet in the contest. He was high scorer with 15 points.

HERE and THERE IN SPORTS LAND

FISHING FOR SUCKERS is prohibited in all streams stocked with trout between March 15 and April 15. Suckers may be taken from the Shenango, Mahoning and Beaver rivers, and ponds and lakes, not stocked with trout. The Little Beaver river, Beaver county, is stocked from the vicinity of Darlington, upstream to the Beaver-Lawrence county line, a distance of approximately five miles. . . . Wampum Rod & Gun club members met last night. . . . Lawrence County Sportsman's Association directors will meet at eight o'clock tonight, at the association's farm near Harbor bridge. . . . Jefferson A.C. has not yet received the names of the grappers who will wrestle here March 31. . . . Frank Cynkar, U. S. bowler recently turned in a 252. . . . Rudy Spincle introduced his youngsters to grapping last week. . . . Ernie Perle and Here & There several nights ago discussed Bessemer baseball of a decade ago. . . . Pop Adams can scarcely wait the opening of the baseball season. . . . Marion Sniezek, former Ne-Ca-Hi basketeteer, is still a keen devotee of the floor sport. . . . Freddy Beshore and Ezzard Charles battle March 29, at Buffalo. . . . Pete Boy, trainer for Billy Pozza, the Ellwood City knock-em outer, was in New Castle several nights ago. Pete formerly was an amateur boxer.

Frankie Moran, southpaw, who flattened Dave Pinto emerged from the Ellwood City battle, which he won in three rounds without a mark on his face. . . . Several night ago Here & There visited the wrestlers in their dressing-room, which was as cold as a refrigerator in a butcher shop, yet they were in a jovial mood. Finally, the chat got around to advertising which prompted Bull Montana to remark: "You cannot get along without newspapers. People like to see it in type." The wrestlers are no different than actors. They like to give their best when there is a large crowd which appreciates their efforts. The grappers were kept busy autographing for both men and women. Many obtained the autograph of Mrs. Gypsy Joe, wife of the long-haired mustached grapper. . . . The new baseball field which will be installed in the Seventh ward will be in the vicinity of the Pennsylvania R.R. shops, according to reports.

Allen Huston Team To Meet Tonight

Allen Huston's softball team will meet at 369 East Washington street tonight to discuss plans for the coming season, it is announced by manager Nickie Ross.

All members of the team and any others wishing to play on the City league team are asked to be present at the meeting.

Wisecracs who refer to golf as an "old man's game" apparently are right but not for the obvious reason.

CARL STORCK DIES

DAYTON, O., March 14.—(INS)—Carl Storck, 56, one of the original organizers of the National Professional Football League, died yesterday at the Leahey Nursing Home in Dayton after a lengthy illness.

Storck served as vice president and later president and treasurer of the football organization. He also was a former vice president of General Motors Corporation.

Harold W. Lahar, line coach at the University of Arkansas, has been appointed assistant football coach at West Virginia university.

New York Stocks

Stocks Firm,
Volume Lags

NEW YORK, March 14.—(INS)—Stocks were firm in early trading today but prices made little headway as volume again lagged. Allied Chemical was a strong spot for the second straight session, climbing four points to a new high of 216. Other issues in the blue chip section were little changed.

First hour volume approximated only 190,000 shares.

Rails were irregular in a narrow range. Chesapeake & Ohio dipped but recovered before the close of the initial hour. Steels and motors were drab. Utilities continued steady.

Chicago, grains, edged fractionally higher. N. Y. cotton was 5 cents lower to 20 cents a bale higher in early dealings. Bonds and curbs shares were quiet with prices little changed.

Better Administration Of Property Taxes Urged

By ED HAUCK
(T. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, March 14.—Better administration of property taxes in Pennsylvania would result in more local revenue and would relieve the strain on the state's pocketbook, a state education association consultant pointed out.

Syracuse University Economics Professor Jesse Burkhead, who does research work for the Pennsylvania State Education Association, said that in spite of increased cost of carrying on state government and the need for assistance for local units, property taxes are the backbone of local government revenue raising in Pennsylvania.

The general increase in governmental costs at all levels puts a financial strain on each. In Pennsylvania the responsibility for the administration of the property tax rests almost solely with the local units.

No State Tax Commission
"Perhaps this is a product of the fact that there is no state tax commission with continuing responsibility for the administration and improvement of the revenue system as a whole," Burkhead said.

The economics expert called attention to the State of Wisconsin's successful experience with a system of property tax supervision.

"A review of the Wisconsin system indicates there may yet be hope of readmitting the property tax to the family of equitable and efficient sources of revenues," said Burkhead.

The Wisconsin system has been in effect for 30 years. The key man is a supervisor, appointed under civil service, paid by the state and responsible to the State Department of Taxation.

The state is divided into four districts with a supervisor over each. His duty with the help of a staff is to counsel elected property assessors in his district.

Holds Assessment Schools
The supervisor holds assessment schools, issue bulletins to the assessors, conduct field demonstrations and is on call to help out assessors confronted with individual problems.

The success of the Wisconsin plans seems to rest on the emphasis on cooperation with the state rather than dictation from the state and on the fact that supervisors have been selected on a merit basis and paid a respectable salary," Burkhead declares.

As far as expenses involved in operating this system "the cost has not exceeded one-tenth of one percent of the property taxes collected in that state, according to the PSEA consultant.

Burkhead said that Pennsylvania cities and counties have a long way to go until the elected assessor is replaced by a merit system. This is one of the biggest criticisms of the Pennsylvania operation.

"If his work is carelessly done, if he plays favorites and places different assessments on John Jones' house than on Dick Smith's, when the two have the same market value, there is little that can be done at a later stage to remedy the original defects," said Burkhead.

Lack of technical training for the job and local political pressures hamper locally-elected assessors in administering their responsibilities according to Burkhead.

Aside from these aspects, the Pennsylvania assessor faces a tough problem in determining the level at which he should assess property within his jurisdiction.

'Maid Of Cotton' Takes To Wool

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(INS)—Elizabeth McGee, 19-year-old Spartansburg, S. C., beauty who is this year's "Maid of Cotton", has been forced to abandon her all-cotton coverings.

Miss McGee arrived in Washington on the annual trip, given the attractive young lady chosen to publicize cotton, with a bad cold.

She made one 15-minute radio appearance and then retired to her Sattler hotel suite where she burrowed between blankets made of all things from wool.

The sheets were cotton, though

Jewish Vets To Meet On Wednesday

An important business meeting has been scheduled for Wednesday evening, March 15, at 8:30 o'clock, in the Cosmo club rooms.

All "A week end at the Waldorf," tickets are to be returned at this time, according to S. R. Moldover, adjutant.

The victim died of a bullet wound in the abdomen. Troutwine told state police when taken into custody that he had shot Eichelberger during a dispute. Later, Troutwine said, he visited the aged man several times and said he was "sorry" about the shooting.

The court was asked to fix the degree and punishment. After a conference with Assistant District Attorney John Beyer, Schaeffer fixed the date for a further hearing and said Judge Joseph E. Wissler would join him in handling the case.

Four Are Dead In Fire In Montreal

MONTREAL, March 14.—(INS)—A mother and her three young children died Monday in a flash fire which destroyed their secondstory home in Montreal's St. Dominique street district.

The victims were: Mrs. Alice Desrosiers, 30, Jacques, 10, Pierre, 7, and Yvon, 2 months.

The family was trapped when flames shut off rescuers. Mrs.

Desrosiers was found still clutching her baby. The position of her body showed she had tried to shield the other two children. The father was at work at the time of the tragedy.
